

WORLDWIDE TRAVEL & TOURISM S.A.L. (WWTT)

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

In alignment with the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) and the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC)

1. Purpose

This Anti-Corruption Policy defines WWTT's commitment to integrity, transparency, and accountability in all business activities, in accordance with the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) Principle 10 and the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC). WWTT adopts a zero-tolerance approach to bribery, fraud, extortion, and any form of corrupt practice, ensuring that ethical conduct remains a fundamental part of its culture and operations.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all WWTT employees, directors, officers, consultants, contractors, suppliers, and third parties acting on behalf of WWTT across all jurisdictions and business sectors — including travel, event management, and logistics services provided to UN agencies, NGOs, and corporate partners.

3. Policy Statement

As a signatory to the UN Global Compact, WWTT is committed to upholding its tenth principle:

Principle 10 – Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

No employee, representative, or partner shall offer, solicit, give, or receive any undue advantage, monetary or otherwise to influence a decision or gain improper benefit. WWTT promotes fairness, lawful behavior, and honest competition in every aspect of its operations.

4. Key Commitments

Area of Commitment	WWTT Actions
Legal Compliance	Ensure compliance with the UN Convention against Corruption, UNGC Principle 10, and all applicable national anti-bribery laws.
Zero Tolerance	Strictly prohibit all forms of bribery, facilitation payments, kickbacks, and conflicts of interest.

WORLDWIDE TRAVEL & TOURISM S.A.L. (WWTT)

Transparency & Record Keeping	Maintain truthful, complete, and auditable financial records; prohibit any off-the-books transactions.
Due Diligence & Third Parties	Conduct due diligence on agents, suppliers, and partners to confirm their ethical alignment.
Training & Awareness	Provide regular staff and partner training on anti-corruption obligations and reporting procedures.
Whistleblowing & Protection	Maintain confidential reporting channels and guarantee protection against retaliation.
Monitoring & Auditing	Periodically review business practices to ensure compliance and identify areas for improvement.
Disciplinary Actions	Apply firm disciplinary or legal action in the event of breaches, including termination of contracts or referral to authorities.

5. Implementation & Responsibilities

- Management Commitment: WWTT's senior leadership ensures that adequate resources, oversight, and measurable objectives support the enforcement of this policy.
- Employee Obligations: All staff members are required to comply fully and to report any suspected irregularities.
- Third-Party Compliance: Suppliers and contractors must adhere to WWTT's anti-corruption standards as part of contractual obligations.
- Risk Assessment: Regular identification and evaluation of corruption risks across operations and supply chains.
- Audit & Improvement: Internal reviews will measure effectiveness and guide continual improvement.

6. Communication

This policy will be shared with all employees, clients, and business partners; made publicly available on WWTT's website; and integrated into staff onboarding, supplier evaluation, and client documentation. Awareness campaigns will reinforce WWTT's zero-tolerance culture.
